According to inventory, the estate, real and personal, was appraised at a sum approximating $35,000, as follows: Real estate, $27,800; slaves (5) $2,400; cash in bank $2,800; contents of drug store $1,500; the balance representing contents of residence.

The three daughters as named above were recognized as the only heirs by J. S. Whitaker, Judge, on December 17, 1862, both wills having been filed on December 13, 1862.

A friend10 writes from New Orleans on November 12, 1940:

'Taking me, as it did, into the dim and distant past-into the dying days of slavery time—this bit of research proved quite interesting to me. And especially so when tracing the Walker branch of the McFarlane family tree. I was brought right 'smack up' with Norman McFarlane Walker (son of Alexander Walker and Mary Elizabeth McFarlane), who was a figure in New Orleans journalism for nearly half a century and whom I had often seen in life. His Christian names indicate that he was named for his maternal grandparents. At the time of his death, December 2. 1925, he was associate editor of the Times-Picayune, and had dropped the middle name of "McFarlane." His father, Alexander Walker, was a lawyer and journalist, having at different times been associated with several New Orleans newspapers. Norman Walker died at the age of 74, but, other than his father, no mention of his antecedents was made in his obituary. According to a statement made by his wife, he told her a few days before his death that he had written and left a sketch of his life in his desk at the office, but a search failed to reveal any trace of it. The last mention of Alexander Walker was found in The [New Orleans] City Directory of 1889, in which he was shown to be living at the same address as Norman McF. Walker. Norman Walker left a son, Clifton, 11 12 a resident of Chicago, and a daughter, Mrs. J. S. Mitchell, a resident of Philadelphia."

Miss Cecelia MacFarlane (no relative) of New Orleans, writes, December 22, 1939:

"Some years ago while wandering in Greenwood Cemetery here, I came across a very neglected iron fenced-in plot and on the tombstone was the name Dr. James McFarlane." ¹³

MOOD AND CONNECTED FAMILIES

e. Sarah Harriet McFarlane, born in Charleston, South Carolina, June 4, 1803; married Rev. Thomas L. Wynn, 14 who died in Camden, South Carolina, October 9, 1830. She died in Charleston, and her stone in the Bethel Churchyard bears the inscription:

"Sacred to the memory of Sarah Harriet Winn [sic], wife of Thomas L. Winn, who died February 7, 1827, aged 23 years, 8 months, 3 days."

Rev. F. A. Mood writes that Thomas L. Wynn (the variations in the spelling of the name is confusing, of course) preached in Charleston in 1823 and 1830¹⁵ and he says, too:¹⁶

"Here, too, the lovely Thomas L. Wynn was attacked by the same fatal malady, which rapidly developed his constitutional tendency to consumption which soon hurried him away. He died in Camden, whither he had removed in the hope of improvement by the change, but death had marked him as his victim. As a preacher he altogether merited the high estimation in which he was held; and what he was, by the Grace of God, as a man, and a Christian, let his death-bed speak."

Of him, Bishop Andrew says, 17

^{10.} Mr. W. Frank Witte, 1517 Nashville Ave., New Orleans.

^{11.} Mr. Clifton Walker survives, and with his son, Clifton P. Walker, Jr., resides at 7326 Damen Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

^{12.} Another Norman Walker, grandson of Norman McF. Walker, is presently with the Associated Press, Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

^{13. &}quot;Some time ago," says Mr. W. Frank Witte, "I located the burial plot of Dr. McFarlane in Greenwood cemetery, this city. It is surmounted by a marble shaft in excellent state of preservation. On the front face of the shaft is the following inscription: 'Our father, Dr. J. S. McFarlane, a native of Charleston, S. C.; born Nov. 24, 1800; died Sept. 9, 1862.' While on one of the sides this inscription appears: 'Our Willie, W. A. Walker; born Jan. 3, 1854; died July 7, 1877.' There are no other inscriptions. The grave presents an appearance of neglect over a long period of time, a considerable portion of the wrought iron enclosure having rusted entirely away. W. A. (Willie) was undoubtedly a younger brother of Norman, who was born in 1851. And . . . another brother, Alexander, had a daughter who became the second wife of a Mr. Hopkins of Waycross, Ga. . . It would be most interesting to know what become of the deceased Norman Walker's mother and her two sisters who figured in the will of Dr. McFarlane. It might be well to mention that both Alexander Walker and his daughter, Mrs. Hopkins, are dead, so as not to raise any false hopes in that direction.

[&]quot;According to the obituary, Norman Walker was buried in the Johnson-Walker tomb in Cypress Grove, an old and quaint cemetery close by Greenwood. This consists of two separate and distinct tombs, rather imposing in their time, one representing quite a line of the Johnson family and the other a long line of Walkers. But neither the name of Norman nor Alexander, his father, is shown, although mention is made of three interments since the death of Norman Walker, the latest in 1935."

FAMILY ALBUM

"T. L. Wynn was a man of good mind. Without early advantages, he had yet, by close application and study, made himself a very respectable preacher. He felt keenly his lack of early training, and determined to supply it by diligent application to the pursuit of knowledge— Had he lived to old age, he might have shone in the pulpit as a man of considerable note, but it pleased God to call him, while yet comparatively young, from the field of his earthly toils and struggles to the rest above. His only surviving son [Rev. Alexander McFarlane Wynn] is now laboring successfully in the California field and promises nobly to bear aloft the standard which fell from the dying hands of his father."

At the birth of Alexander McFarlane Wynn, January 20, 1827, his mother, Sarah McFarlane Wynn, died. The infant was baptized beside his mother's coffin by Bishop J. O. Andrew, who was later to become his foster father, and with whom he was living in 1839 and as late as 1847 at Walnut Grove, Georgia. He soon entered the itineracy. From Danville, Missouri, the Bishop writes, September, 1848:

"One of my fine greys had grown so lame I had to leave her in charge of my nephew, A. Wynn." 19

In 1849, he was sent by Bishop Andrew to California. In his Miscellanies, the Bishop says (1851):

"It is not quite two years since our beloved Boring, Pollock, and $W \gamma nn$ landed in San Francisco." 20

The wife of Rev. A. M. Wynn was Maria C. Howard, daughter of Mrs. Judith Howard, of Winton (Ga. ?) In November, 1851, while Rev. and Mrs. Wynn were stationed at the Southern Methodist Mission, at San José, California, their first child, Judith, was born.

In 1875 when Rev. Wynn was pastor of the Wesley Church, Savannah, Georgia, he conceived the idea of building the Wesley Monumental Church there. He died in Columbus, Georgia, in 1906, aged 79 years. He left children whose descendants now live in Savannah, Atlanta, and elsewhere in Georgia.

Among the greatgrandchildren of Sarah Harriet (McFarlane) and Thomas L. Wynn are Mrs. Walter Douglas and Mr. Pratt Adams, of Savannah, and Mrs. Cam. D. Dorsey, and Mrs. Malcolm Fleming, of Atlanta.

APPENDIX III

THOMAS L. WYNN

From Minutes of the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the year 1831. N. Y., J. Collard, Printer, 1831.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Thomas L. Wynn was the son of Samuel and Elizabeth Wynn and was born in Abbeville District, South Carolina, June 27, 1798. He was converted when only thirteen years old; but by the influence of thoughtless company, lost his first love, and was for several years in a lukewarm state. In 1815 he regained what he had lost, and in 1817 was licensed to preach, and admitted on trial into the itinerant connection, in the South Carolina Conference. His appointments successively were to Keowee, Union, Black Mountain, Deep River and Ohoopee Circuits; and, for 1823, to the City of Charleston. Up to this period, Brother Wynn had enjoyed good health; but during his labors in Charleston, he began to be troubled with the symptoms of the disease of which he died. For the year 1824 he was appointed to the City of Savannah; and for 1825 to Wilmington. During both these years he could with difficulty fulfill the duties of his calling, and at the following conference received the relation of a superannuated or worn out preacher. This relation, however, he sustained but one year; and in 1827 was stationed in Georgetown. Here he was attacked with bilious fever, which had almost taken his life, when again there appeared symptoms of consumption. For 1828 he was stationed in Camden; 1829, in Washington, and Lexington in Georgia; and in 1830 he was appointed a second time to the City of Charleston. Early in that year he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs, attended with other alarming symptoms, and after suffering much, without a prospect of speedy recovery, and the air of Charleston being thought unfavorable to him, he removed to Camden, intending as soon as he might be able to go farther into the interior. A violent fever, however, made him too low to admit of his travelling, and this was succeeded by a rapid consumption of which he died on the 9th day of October, 1830.

The exercises of his mind, and other manifestations of the Grace of God which he experienced during his last illness were peculiarly edifying. He possessed extraordinary abilities as a preacher. From childhood he was studious and thoughtful; and, although his opportunities of acquiring knowledge in early life were perhaps rather limited, his after habits were such as to render him respectable both for his literary and theological attainments. In this respect he was a fine example of what a Methodist preacher can do to improve his mind, if he will be studious. As a preacher, altogether, he richly merited the high estimation in which he was held, and what he was by the Grace of God, as a man and as a Christian, let his death bed speak. By his death, the church has lost a son and a servant, much lamented and long to be remembered.

WYNNE

The Wynne family seems to have resided in and about Canterbury, England, for three or more centuries before coming to Virginia. The first mention of the name found in the records is that of "John Wynne" member of Parliament from Canterbury, 29th of Edward III (1356). (Hasted History of Canterbury, Vol. 1, p. 49). From that time on down to Robert Wynne, Mayor of Canterbury, 1599 the name appears often in the records. (Ibid, Vol. 2, p. 607).

Robert Wynne, the mayor, was the grandfather of Colonel Robert Wynne, Speaker of the House of Burgesses in Virginia during the Long Parliament, 1661-74. Colonel Robert Wynne was Speaker longer than any other one man in Virginia's history.

The Wynnes were members of Woolendrapers Guild. Robert Wynne, woolendraper, apprenticed to John Rose, Alderman, was released from his indentures and became a Freeman of the City in 1590. (Cowper, Roll of Freeman of Canterbury, p. 243). Nine years later, 1599, he was mayor of the ancient city of Canterbury. His sons became freemen by right of birth. Thomas Wynne, gentleman, son of Robert Wynne, became Free in 1612, and Peter Wynne, son of Robert Wynne, became Free in 1626. (Ibid, p. 95).

Robert Wynne, the Speaker, dying in Virginia 1675, gave his youngest son a house "lying without St. Georges in Canterbury" and an inspection of the parish records of St. George finds this family shown therein.

At St. Georges on September 6th 1609, "Mr. Robert Wynne", evidently the Mayor, was buried, and his wife (not named) was buried on the 8th of the same month. (Parish Register of St. Georges, p. 180).

Thomas Wynne of Canterbury, grocer, and Mary Wickham of Faversham were married at Ospringe, July 20, 1613. (Canterbury Marriage Licenses, 1st Series, 1568-1618, p. 458)

At St. George, May 9, 1625, "Mr. Thomas Wynne's child" was buried (St. George's Register, p. 183). On July 20, 1629, the wife of Mr. Thomas Wynne was buried. Thomas Wynne took upon himself a second wife soon afterwards for "Thomas Wynne of Canterbury, grocer, widower, and Ann Nichols of the Almony of St. Augustine, Canterbury, widow of James Nichols, late deceased" were married at St. Martins, October 26, 1629. (Canterbury Marriage License, 2nd Series, p. 1107)

No further record is shown of Thomas, but Peter Wynne, his younger brother, as "Peter Wynne of Canterbury, gentleman", and Martha Coppin of St. Margarets, Canterbury, were married at St. Martins, August 12, 1620. William Coppin, father of Martha, signed the marriage bond.

Robert Wynne, son of Peter Wynne, gentleman, was christened at St. Dunstans Canterbury, 28 December 1622. (Printed Register, p. 12) He was evidently the Speaker of Virginia's Long Parliament.

At St. Georges on January 25, 1630, Sarah, daughter of Peter Wynne, gentleman, was buried; August 20, 1631, Mr. Wynne's sister, the wife of Paul May, was buried; and May 30, 1638, Peter Wynne, gentleman, was buried. (Register, p. 183-85)

Peter Wynne's father in law, William Coppin, gentleman, was buried at St. Georges March 18, 1633. A memorial tablet erected to him in St. Georges is mentioned in Hasted's History. (Hasted Kent. Vol. IV, p. 470, 466). St. Margaret Parish where William Coppin lived was adjacent to St. Georges and the two parishes were later combined.

William Coppin was probably a grandson of John Coppin, member of Parliament from Canterbury, 1553-54. This family is also shown in St. George's register. At St. Georges March 25, 1645, "Thomas, son of John Coppin" was christened. Mary Coppin, wife of this John, was buried in St. Alphages in 1685, and the Coppins Arms, shown on her tomb are "Per pale, azure and gules, 3 boars heads, couped, a chief or, a mullet for difference". (Hasted Kent Vol. IV, p. 470, 466)

It is not known exactly when the above Robert Wynne, Christened at St. Dunstan 1622, came to Virginia, but he first appears in the Virginia records along with Captain Abraham Wood who will be further mentioned. Robert Wynne was a Justice in Charles City County Court, October 3rd, 1656. (W & M 4 (1), p. 167) He was also evidently a Captain of Militia as he is shown as "Captain Robert Wynne".

He represented Charles City in the House of Burgesses, March 1657-8, and March 1659-60, and was Speaker of House, 1661-74. In 1673 Colonel Wynne was a member of a Court Martial sitting at James City (V. M. 20, p. 28).

Colonel Wynne died in 1675. His widow, Mary, is referred to in a suit in the General Court as his executrix the 8th of October 1675. (Mins of Council, p. 424)

On account of owning property in England his will was probated there. If it was not for this the place of his old home in England would not be known as the Charles City records for that period have perished. He appears to have married a Mrs. Poythress, a widow, as he mentioned his "son-in-law Captain Francis Poythress". "Son-in-Law" in those days meant "step-son". His will was as follows:

"Robert Wynne of Jordan's Parish, Charles City County in Virginia, Gent., dated July 1st 1675, probated August 15th. 1678.

"To be buried in Jordan's Church as near as possible to my son Robert.

"My estate in England to be divided as follows:
To my eldest son Thomas Wynne one farm in Whitestaple
Parish in Kent near Canterbury commonly called Limbet Banckes; if he die to my son Joshua, and if he die, to my daughter Woodlief.

"To my son Thomas two houses in Canterbury in St. Mildred's Parish in the same form as the said farm.

"To my youngest son Joshua Wynne one house and Oatmeal mill lying in Dover Lane without St. Georges in Canterbury, commonly called the Lilly Pot; and two houses adjoining where a Ropemaker and one Rawlins were formerly tenants. "Touching my estate in Virginia, to my son Thomas all the cattle of his own mark except one cow called Moll which is to be killed for provisions.

"To my son Joshua my plantation called Georges with all the Tobacco houses.

"To my daughter Woodlief one servant of four years to serve the next shipping after my decease.

"To my grandchild and godson young George Woodlief one filly foal.

"All the rest of my estate in Virginia and England to my wife and executrix Mary Wynne.

"Overseers: Thomas Grendon, Merchant, and my son in law Captain Francis Poythress.

"Teste: Thomas Brome, John Burge."

Children:

I. Thomas was mentioned as "eldest son" in his father's will. He was born in 1657 for in a deposition given in a suit in Prince George in 1707 he gave his age as 50 years. (V. M. 14, p. 174). In 1701 he patented 200 acres on the south side of the Blackwater in Charles City (afterwards Prince George). In the 1704 Quit Rents "Captain" Thomas Wynne held 400 acres in the Prince George. In 1707 he and his wife Agnes deeded land in Surry to his son, Robert, and his daughter, Mary Malone.

On April 24, 1703 the Council upon reading "a petition of the King and Great men of the Nottoway and Meherrin Indians praying that Thomas Wynne be appointed their interpreter in the place of Thomas Blunt with whom they have experienced dissatisfaction, he was accordingly appointed Interpreter to those two tribes and also the Nansemonds." (C. J. 2.315)

He promptly acted to prevent certain colonists from settling on Indian lands around Bear Swamp and other places belonging to them and for a time pacified their "dissatisfactions and uneasiness", but after a time they petitioned for another interpreter on the grounds that he was "remiss and negligent". (Ibid 3-104).

On November 30, 1707, he entered 500 acres on Cabin Shick Swamp on the south side of the Nottoway and prayed the Council that it be surveyed as it was uncertain whether it was in Prince George or Surry.

Thomas Wynne made his will in Surry, February 18, 1716-17 and same was probated May 21, 1718.

He mentioned wife, Mary; granddaughter, Mary Butler; grandson, Joel Tucker; son in law, William Raines and Angelica, his wife; son in law, Jefferson Raines; granddaughter, Elizabeth Parham; grandson, Robert Parham; brother, Thomas Wynne; granddaughter, Martha Bell; grandson, Joel Tucker; daughter, Cornelia Raines.

 - 6. Mary Vines, b. Jan. 26, 1773.
 - 7. Martha Vines, b. Jan. 19, 1775.

Mary Butler may have been the second wife of Thomas Vines, or may have been the wife of Thomas Vines, Jr.

Thomas Vines and wife Elizabeth had following children shown in the Albermarle Register:

 John, bapt. May 10, 1748; godparents, Lawrence Gibbons, Geo. Robertson, Dorothy Vaughn (wife of Thomas).

- Isaac Willis, bapt. Mar. 19, 1745, none given.
- Lucas, bapt. Jan. 22, 1749, godparents, Thomas Vaughn, John Mitchell. Anne Hill.
- 4. Herbert, bapt. July 7, 1758.

There is no indication in the register that the Thomas Vines who married Mary Butler was Thomas Vines, Jr. Thomas and Mary Vines' children begin in the register in 1760. There are no more children shown after the baptism of Herbert in 1758, so Mary Butler could have been his second wife.

Thomas Vines came from York County as he is shown as "Thomas Vines of York" in a deed from Robert Mitchell in 1740 (See Mitchell).

Thomas Butler (above) also may have had a second wife, for a Thomas Butler with wife Elizabeth had the following children in the register:

- Thomas, bapt. Nov. 1, 1752; godparents, Thomas Vaughn, Robert Mitchell, Dorothy Vaughn.
- Amy, bapt. May 17, 1757, godparents, Thomas Vines, Jr., Mary Jones. Mary Butler.
- 3. Anne, bapt. Apr. 20, 1760.
- 4. Willie, bapt. Feb. 7, 1762, godparents, David Tucker, Eliz. Butler.

Thomas Butler, Jr., and wife Mary had a son "Vines", baptized May 30, 1767.

A Thomas Butler was mentioned as a "grandson" in the will of William Mitchell in 1778 (see Mitchell). William Mitchell's will was witnessed by Thomas Vaughn and John Mitchell. He appears to be the Thomas Butler baptized Nov. 1, 1752, for his godparent, Thomas Vaughn witnessed William Mitchell's will.

- II. Joshua Wynne, youngest son. (See later).
- III. Robert Wynne, dead before 1675.
- IV. Mary Wynne, m. John Woodlieff, son of Captain John Woodlieff, Burgess, Charles City, 1652, and grandson of Captain John Woodlieff who came to Virginia in 1608. The second Captain John Woodlieff was granted land in 1683, "near a place called 'Jordans' and bounded westerly upon Francis Poythress." One will recognize similar names in Robert Wynne's will.

II. Joshua Wynne, youngest son of Colonel Robert Wynne was a Justice in Charles City, February 23, 1698; member of the House of Burgess, 1702-1704; and after Prince George was cut off from that County he was Sheriff of Prince George 1705 and 1711. (Burgess Journal Vo. 1702-12, p. 50, Executive Journals of Council 1-408; 3-28, 272, 159.) In 1708 Major Joshua Wynne and Mary, his wife, deeded a tract of land in Surry. (V. M. 14, p. 174).

Joshua married Mary, a daughter of Captain Peter Jones of Charles City. In 1661 Peter Jones was Captain of a company of Train Bands from City Creek to the Falls of the Appamattox on the south side and from Powells Creek to the said Falls on the north side. In 1674 he was Major in command of the Fort built at the Falls. The City of Petersburg founded at the site of the Falls is named for his grandson.

Peter Jones' wife was Margaret, daughter of Major General Abraham Wood who held this commission from Berkeley during Bacon's Rebellion. General Wood was also a Justice in Charles City, 1655; Colonel of a regiment from Charles City and Henrico in 1656, Burgess 1652-56. He entered the Governor's Council in 1657 and remained a member until 1671.

Mrs. Margaret Wood-Jones afterwards married Thomas Cocke of Malvern Hills. As Margaret Cocke of the County and Parish of Henrico she made her will, August 12, 1718, same probated May 4, 1719, as follows:

"to grandaughter Margaret wife of Edward Goodrich to grandaughter Mary wife of John Worsham to grandson Peter Wynne one Mullato man named John Henry being appointed to be given by will of my deceased husband Thomas Cocke. I also confirm gift of boy named Thomas I made to Major Joshua Wynne in his life time.

to daughter Margaret Jones - 2 silver spoons to daughter Mrs. Mary Randolph - 1 negro boy to son Peter Jones - son of my son Abraham Jones decd., 10 shillings to buy him a ring. to grandson Joshua Wynne 2 steers, grandsons Robert Wynne, William Wynne and Francis Wynne a cow each when they arrive at lawful age.

to godson William, son of William Randolph, - 1 Mulatto boy to son Peter Jones - rest of estate. Executors: son and William Randolph."

Joshua like his brother, Thomas, was an Indian Interpreter. In 1704 the Nottoway, Meherrin, Nansemond, Pamunkey and Chickahominy Indians petitioned the governor to allow some of their chief men to go north to conclude a peace with the Senecas, and ransom the Nottoway king taken prisoner last summer. The desired leave to take with them Captain Joshua Wynne and Captain Thomas Wynne "without whose consent and approbation they were to conclude nothing". (C. J. 2-380) These brothers seem to have been fearless adventurers for this was a far away, difficult and dangerous journey.

In 1707, Major Joshua Wynne was one of a commission of 6 persons appointed to examine upon oath "such ancient inhabitants of Prince George (and other border counties between this Colony and North Carolina) and discover the truth as to the said bounds bethe said colonies."

Joshua Wynne died in 1715 as an account of his estate was filed in that year (Orders) and on March 30, 1715, a suit was brought against Peter Wynne as administrator of the estate of his father, Joshua Wynne. (V. M. 20,86).

Children:

- Peter Wynne, m. Frances, daughter of John Anderson and the widow of John Herbert. She was the executrix of Herbert's will in 1716. (V. M. 18, p. 190. Her will was probated in 1725. She mentioned her Herbert children, but no Wynne children. (Wm. 8, (1), p. 147)
 - In 1731 Peter Wynne was granted 1000 acres on north side of Butterwood Creek in Prince George and in 1732 he assigned 100 acres of same to Henry Wyatt.

- 3. Robert Wynne m. Frances. On May 13, 1718 he sold lands in Prince George to William Cotten and Martha, his wife. In 1728 he received a grant of 369 acres on the south side of Nottoway River in St. Andrews Parish, Brunswick and on January 6, 1742 he conveyed same to Lewellyn Jones of Brunswick.
- Frances Wynne made a deed in Prince George 1717.
- 5. William Wynne, (See later)

William Wynne, a younger son of Major Joshua Wynne, was born in 1705, for he made a deposition in Prince George in 1727 in which he gave his age as 22. (V. M. 38, p. 243). His land fell in Brunswick County when same was formed from Prince George. He was a Justice in Brunswick in 1732 and Sheriff of the County in 1736. (Ex. Journals of Council 4-266, 368).

He soon moved to the far western frontiers of the country for in 1738 he patented 200 acres on the south side of the Dan River in what is now Pittsylvania County. In 1745 he together with Clement Reade and Robert Jones had leave of the council to patent 36000 acres in the western country. In 1752, when the new County of Pittsylvania was formed he was a member of the first County Court. He was granted a patent of 2000 acres joining upon his former survey on the Dan River. This was at "Wynnes Creeks and Wynne's Falls", two places which were named in his honor. This land is now the site of the present city of Danville.

William Wynne's son, Thomas, and Richard Echols were among the first vestrymen of Antrim Parish and served the Parish in this capacity for many years. William Wynne made his will October 8, 1777, same probated March 26, 1778, as follows: (D&W 5, p. 444).

"Grandson, William Wynne, son of my daughter, Mary Wynne, to inherit the home place 295 acres on Sandy Creek after the death of Frances, my wife. The residue of the estate consisting of several negroes to be equally divided amongst all my children, William, Thomas, John and Robert Wynne, Margaret Hendricks, Elizabeth Echols, Mary Wynne and Martha Dixon. Esecutors: sons, William and Thomas. Witnesses: William Collie, Charles Collie, Stephen Velita, Phebe Worsham, and Mary Collie."

- Cornelius, (1813-85) m. 1836, Isabella Clay (1817-1911) and had Robert F. Dixon, b. 1853, who married Rosa R. Green, b. 1859. Their daughter, Susan Dixon married L. B. Curd.
- Judith, (1821-71), m. 1838, Thomas T. Towles and had Elizabeth Towles, b. 1849, who married William Meade Alvin.

Henry Dixon, Sr., father of this distinguished Revolutionary family made his will in Caswell County as follows:

"Henry Dixon, of Caswell County, North Carolina, being old and infirm but of sound Sense & Memory - -

"4th August 1795, Wife, Elizabeth, to have a good sufficient & Genteel maintenance out of my Estate suring her Life to be afforded her by my Two Sons Charles Dixon & Tilman Dixon; to my son, Charles Dixon, the tract of land whereon I now live containing 630 acres, which was granted to me by the State of North Carolina; one negro man named Jeff; to my granddaughter, Frances Dixon, daughter of Henry Dixon, deceased, negro girl named Cloe; feather bed and fur. Rest of estate both real and personal to my Two sons, Charles Dixon and Tilman Dixon. Appoint Sons, Charles and Tilman Dixon, Executors." (Caswell Wills, Vol.1, p. 21)

Charles Dixon, son of Henry, Sr., was Ensign 6th North Carolina, 2nd April 1777; transferred to 3rd North Carolina, 1st July 1778; Lieutenant, 8th February 1779; wounded at Eutaw Springs, 8th September 1781, transferred to 4th North Carolina 6th February 1782; retired 1st January 1783. (Heitman)

Tilghman Dixon, son of Henry Sr., was 1st. Lieutenant, 1st North Carolina, 20 October 1775; Captain 5th February 1777; taken prisoner at Charleston, 12 May 1780; exchanged 14th June 1781; retired 1st January 1783. (Heitman).

He married Maria Don Carlos 1789. She was born 1767. They both died at Dixon Springs, Tennessee, and are the ancestors of Mr. Charles W. Dixon of Gould, Arkansas. Eliza Henry Dixon, a daughter of Captain Tilghman Dixon, born 1802, died 1871, married Dr. James Waller Overton (1785-1865). Their daughter, Elizabeth Overton (1830-80), married James L. Calcott (1824-59) of Natchez, Mississippi.

Major Thomas Donoho of Caswell served in the Revolution in the 6th North Carolina and other regiments with the Dixons. He was 1st Lieutenant 6th North Carolina, 16th April 1776; Captain 10th September 1776; Major, 13th October 1781; in 4th North Carolina 6th February 1782. Served to close of war; died 1825. (Heitman)

Major Donoho married Keziah Saunders and died in Caswell County in 1825. He is the ancestor of the Donohos of Sumner and Trousdale counties in Tennessee.

Soon after 1790 these families began their migration to blue grass fields of Sumner County, Tennessee. In Caswell County in 1790 were Henry, Charles, Martha, Tillman, Wynne and Roger Dixon. Also Patrick, William and Major Thomas Donoho. Accompanied by some of their Wynne, Hendrick and Echols relatives of Pittsylvania, Virginia, they started on their long trek through the Indian Country.

Patrick, Charles, Edward and Thomas Donoho bought land in Sumner County. Deeds to them show that they came from Caswell County, North Carolina. (Sumner Bk. A, pp. 14, 24, 129, 130, 171.)

Sumner County, Book 1, 1793-97, shows that Wynne Dixon sold land to Thomas Bradley; Tighlman Dixon to Catherine Bledsoe; Charles & Wynne Dixon to Tighlman Dixon; Elkahanah Echols bought land from James Montgomery. (pp. 359, 212, 443, 456, 128).

In 1787 Joel Echols, ancestor of the Echols family of Sumner, and Joseph Hendricks were soldiers in Captain Hunter's company, Evans Batallion of Sumner County Militia.

Young Robert Wynne, probably the son of Robert Wynne of Pittsylvania, Virginia, heretofore mentioned, married Cynthia Harrison, January 6, 1800. They were the parents of Colonel Alfred Robert Wynne of Castalian Springs, Tennessee, and of Cynthia Wynne who married Albert Gallatin Donoho of Trousedale County.

Robert Wynne died a few years after his marriage for on July 31, 1805, his widow, Cynthia, married Samuel Kerr of Wilson County.

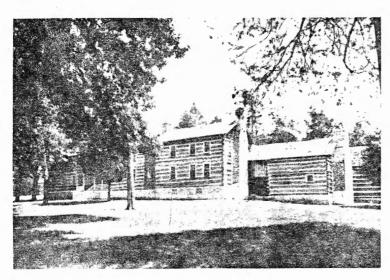

Alfred R. Wynne, his son, lived at Hickory Ridge in Wilson County until he was sixteen when he returned to Sumner. He was a Colonel of Militia in 1860 and served one term in the State Senate in 1866.

In Colonel Wynne's lifetime the Echols, Wynnes and Dixons of Dixon's Springs were said to be related, but no one knew exactly how. It is interesting to find that this is true.

Colonel Wynne, born Dec. 1800, died Dec. 16, 1893; married Almira Winchester Feb. 15, 1825. She was born March 30, 1805, and died June 24, 1884. She was the daughter of General James Winchester of "Cragfont", Sumner County. Colonel Wynne lived at Castalian Springs about a mile from "Cragfont". The Colonel's home which was built for them by General Winchester about 1825, is a splendid example of early Tennessee architecture; it is now occupied by the Colonel's grandson, George Winchester Wynne.

Children:

- I. William. In 1774 William Wynne of Pittsylvania sold to John Worsham 200 acres on both sides of Dan River at mouth of Rutledges Creek to Jackson. Said land was given him by his father, William Wynne. Deed was recorded in Halifax. He was head of a family of three persons in Pittsylvania in Census of 1782 but was out of the county when Census of 1785 was taken.
- II. Thomas. On September 27, 1770, William Wynne, Sr., made a deed of gift to grandchildren, Mary, John, Patty and Francis Wynne of a negro each, and to John a boy named George. (D. B. 2, p. 7).

In 1784, John Wynne, Jr., of Lincoln county, North Carolina gave power of attorney to George Humphrys of Caswell County, North Carolina to recover a negro boy, George, given to John Wynne by his grandfather, William. (D. B. 7, p. 221)

On November 1764, 295 acres were surveyed on lower Sandy Creek of the Dan River for George Musick. This land was transferred to William Wynne, Jr., son of Thomas Wynne, by George Musick in 1769, 1773 and 1780. William and his grandmother, Frances Wynne, sold 295 acres to Humphrey Hendrick for £ 2000, February 15, 1780. This was the home place mentioned in William Wynne's will.

Thomas Wynne was head of a family of ten persons in 1782 but was out of the county in 1785.

- III. John, on September 27, 1775, was an Ensign of Halifax Militia (V. M. 19, p. 307). In 1870 Captain John Wynne's company of Halifax Militia fought at the Battle of Guilford. C. H. (McAllister). In 1782 he was head of a family of eight persons. He sold 208 acres to Thomas Fearn in 1783, next to Robert and Charles Wynne, same being land he now occupies. He was out of the county in 1785.
- IV. Robert was head of a family of twelve persons in 1782 and of eleven in 1785. On November 13, 1788, he sold 300 acres to his brother in law, Humphrey Hendricks, and evidently moved out of the county. His son, Robert, was probably the person of the same name who later moved to Sumner County, Tennessee, with his cousins, the Echols and Dixons. (see later).
- V. Margaret, m. Humphrey Hendricks who was head of a family of eight persons in 1785.
- VI. Elizabeth, m. Joseph Echols who was head of a family of nine persons in 1785.

VII. Martha, married September 15, 1763, Colonel Henry Dixon of Caswell County, North Carolina. Caswell is just across the border from Pittsylvania.

Colonel Henry Dixon was a son of Henry Dixon, Sr. of Caswell County. Colonel Dixon, affectionately known as "Hal" to his soldiers, had a long and distinguished record of service in the Revolution. He was Captain, 1st North Carolina, 1 September 1775; transferred to 8th North Carolina, January 1777; Major 3rd North Carolina 4 October 1777; Lieutenant Colonel 12 May 1778; wounded at Stono Ferry 20 June 1779; transferred to 2nd North Carolina, 6th February 1782; died in service 17 July 1782. (Heitman).

In Captain Henry Dixon's company of Continentals were the following Wynnes:

Jones Wynne, Pvt. enlisted 1777, in service 60 months, received grant of 457 acres. William Wynne, Pvt., Dixon's Company. Knibb Wynne, Sgt., Dixon's Company. Williamson Wynne (1760-1828), son of Major Joshua Wynne of the Georgia Continental line, born in Virginia, served as a private in Captain Dixon's company (DAR, Vol. 104, p. 38).

Colonel Dixon's will was probated in September 1782. He named wife, Martha, and children, Roger, Robert, Henry, Frances, Elizabeth and Wynne Dixon.

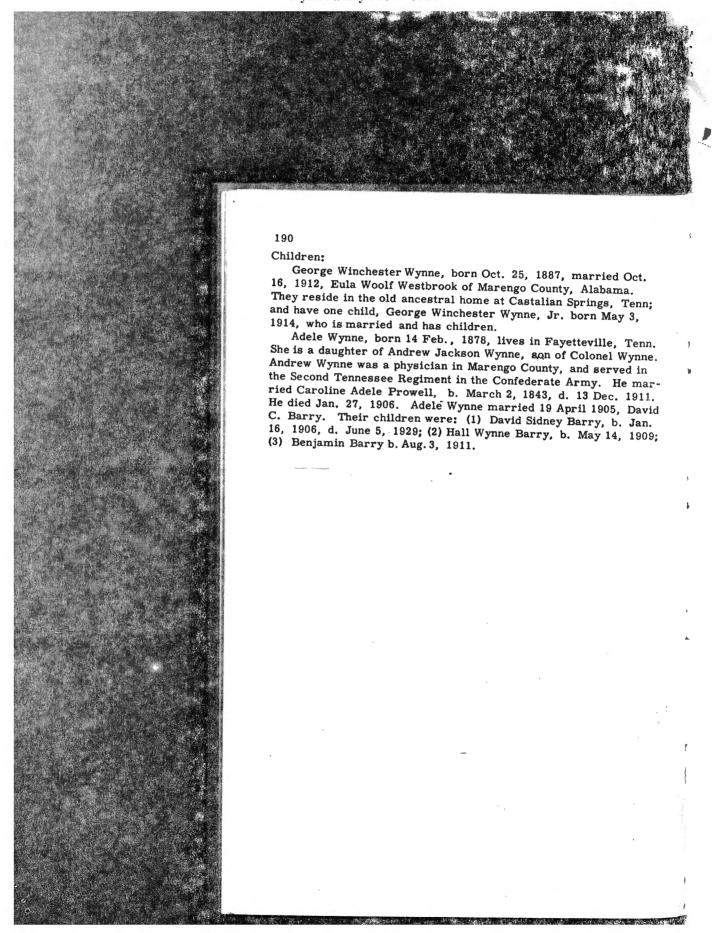

Wynne Dixon, his son was Ensign 10 North Carolina, 1st March, 1781; 2nd Lieutenant, 5th July 1781, transferred to 1st North Carolina, February 1782; served to close of war. Died 24 November 1829.

Wynne Dixon (1764-1832) married first Keturah Payne January 8, 1786; and secondly Rebecca, daughter of David Hart. He was a charter member of the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnatti. Wynne Wynne

The Wynne family seems to have resided in and about Canterbury, England, for three or more centuries before coming to Virginia. The first mention of the name found in the records is that of "John Wynne" member of Parliament from Canterbury, 29th of Edward III (1356). (Hasted History of Canterbury, Vol. 1, p. 49). From that time on down to Robert Wynne, Mayor of Canterbury, 1599 the name appears often in the records. (Ibid, Vol. 2, p. 607).

Robert Wynne, the mayor, was the grandfather of Colonel Robert Wynne, Speaker of the House of Burgesses in Virginia during the Long Parliament, 1661-74. Colonel Robert Wynne was Speaker longer than any other one man in Virginia's history.

The Wynnes were members of Woolendrapers Guild. Robert Wynne, woolendraper, apprenticed to John Rose, Alderman, was released from his indentures and became a Freeman of the City in 1590. (Cowper, Roll of Freeman of Canterbury, p. 243). Nine years later, 1599, he was mayor of the ancient city of Canterbury. His sons became freemen by right of birth. Thomas Wynne, gentleman, son of Robert Wynne, became Free in 1612, and Peter Wynne, son of Robert Wynne, became Free in 1626. (Ibid, p. 95).

Robert Wynne, the Speaker, dying in Virginia 1675, gave his youngest son a house "lying without St. Georges in Canterbury" and an inspection of the parish records of St. George finds this family shown therein.

At St. Georges on September 6th 1609, "Mr. Robert Wynne", evidently the Mayor, was buried, and his wife (not named) was buried on the 8th of the same month. (Parish Register of St. Georges, p. 180).

Thomas Wynne of Canterbury, grocer, and Mary Wickham of Faversham were married at Ospringe, July 20, 1613. (Canterbury Marriage Licenses, 1st Series, 1568-1618, p. 458)

At St. George, May 9, 1625, "Mr. Thomas Wynne's child" was buried (St. George's Register, p. 183). On July 20, 1629, the wife of Mr. Thomas Wynne was buried. Thomas Wynne took upon himself a second wife soon afterwards for "Thomas Wynne of Canterbury, grocer, widower, and Ann Nichols of the Almony of St. Augustine, Canterbury, widow of James Nichols, late deceased" were married at St. Martins, October 26, 1629. (Canterbury Marriage License, 2nd Series, p. 1107)

No further record is shown of Thomas, but Peter Wynne, his younger brother, as "Peter Wynne of Canterbury, gentleman", and Martha Coppin of St. Margarets, Canterbury, were married at St. Martins, August 12, 1620. William Coppin, father of Martha, signed the marriage bond.

Robert Wynne, son of Peter Wynne, gentleman, was christened at St. Dunstans Canterbury, 28 December 1622. (Printed Register, p. 12) He was evidently the Speaker of Virginia's Long Parliament.

At St. Georges on January 25, 1630, Sarah, daughter of Peter Wynne, gentleman, was buried; August 20, 1631, Mr. Wynne's sister, the wife of Paul May, was buried; and May 30, 1638, Peter Wynne, gentleman, was buried. (Register, p. 183-85)

Peter Wynne's father in law, William Coppin, gentleman, was buried at St. Georges March 18, 1633. A memorial tablet erected to him in St. Georges is mentioned in Hasted's History. (Hasted Kent. Vol. IV, p. 470, 466). St. Margaret Parish where William Coppin lived was adjacent to St. Georges and the two parishes were later combined.

William Coppin was probably a grandson of John Coppin, member of Parliament from Canterbury, 1553-54. This family is also shown in St. George's register. At St. Georges March 25, 1645, "Thomas, son of John Coppin" was christened. Mary Coppin, wife of this John, was buried in St. Alphages in 1685, and the Coppins Arms, shown on her tomb are "Per pale, azure and gules, 3 boars heads, couped, a chief or, a mullet for difference". (Hasted Kent Vol. IV, p. 470, 466)

It is not known exactly when the above Robert Wynne, Christened at St. Dunstan 1622, came to Virginia, but he first appears in the Virginia records along with Captain Abraham Wood who will be further mentioned. Robert Wynne was a Justice in Charles City County Court, October 3rd, 1656. (W & M 4 (1), p. 167) He was also evidently a Captain of Militia as he is shown as "Captain Robert Wynne".

He represented Charles City in the House of Burgesses, March 1657-8, and March 1659-60, and was Speaker of House, 1661-74. In 1673 Colonel Wynne was a member of a Court Martial sitting at James City (V. M. 20, p. 28).

Colonel Wynne died in 1675. His widow, Mary, is referred to in a suit in the General Court as his executrix the 8th of October 1675. (Mins of Council, p. 424)

On account of owning property in England his will was probated there. If it was not for this the place of his old home in England

would not be known as the Charles City records for that period have perished. He appears to have married a Mrs. Poythress, a widow, as he mentioned his "son-in-law Captain Francis Poythress". "Son-in-Law" in those days meant "step-son". His will was as follows:

"Robert Wynne of Jordan's Parish, Charles City County in Virginia, Gent., dated July 1st 1675, probated August 15th, 1678.

"To be buried in Jordan's Church as near as possible to my son Robert.

"My estate in England to be divided as follows:
To my eldest son Thomas Wynne one farm in Whitestaple
Parish in Kent near Canterbury commonly called Limbet Banckes; if he die to my son Joshua, and if he die, to my daughter Woodlief.

"To my son Thomas two houses in Canterbury in St. Mildred's Parish in the same form as the said farm.

"To my youngest son Joshua Wynne one house and Oatmeal mill lying in Dover Lane without St. Georges in Canterbury, commonly called the Lilly Pot; and two houses adjoining where a Ropemaker and one Rawlins were formerly tenants. "Touching my estate in Virginia, to my son Thomas all the cattle of his own mark except one cow called Moll which is to be killed for provisions.

"To my son Joshua my plantation called Georges with all the Tobacco houses.

"To my daughter Woodlief one servant of four years to serve the next shipping after my decease.

"To my grandchild and godson young George Woodlief one filly foal.

"All the rest of my estate in Virginia and England to my wife and executrix Mary Wynne.

"Overseers: Thomas Grendon, Merchant, and my son in law Captain Francis Poythress.

"Teste: Thomas Brome, John Burge."

Children:

I. Thomas was mentioned as "eldest son" in his father's will. He was born in 1657 for in a deposition given in a suit in Prince George in 1707 he gave his age as 50 years. (V. M. 14, p. 174). In 1701 he patented 200 acres on the south side of the Blackwater in Charles City (afterwards Prince George). In the 1704 Quit Rents "Captain" Thomas Wynne held 400 acres in the Prince George. In 1707 he and his wife Agnes deeded land in Surry to his son, Robert, and his daughter, Mary Malone.

On April 24, 1703 the Council upon reading "a petition of the King and Great men of the Nottoway and Meherrin Indians praying that Thomas Wynne be appointed their interpreter in the place of Thomas Blunt with whom they have experienced dissatisfaction, he was accordingly appointed Interpreter to those two tribes and also the Nansemonds." (C. J. 2,315)

He promptly acted to prevent certain colonists from settling on Indian lands around Bear Swamp and other places belonging to them and for a time pacified their "dissatisfactions and uneasiness", but after a time they petitioned for another interpreter on the grounds that he was "remiss and negligent". (Ibid 3-104).

On November 30, 1707, he entered 500 acres on Cabin Shick Swamp on the south side of the Nottoway and prayed the Council that it be surveyed as it was uncertain whether it was in Prince George or Surry.

Thomas Wynne made his will in Surry, February 18, 1716-17 and same was probated May 21, 1718.

 - 6. Mary Vines, b. Jan. 26, 1773.
 - 7. Martha Vines, b. Jan. 19, 1775.

Mary Butler may have been the second wife of Thomas Vines, or may have been the wife of Thomas Vines, Jr.

Thomas Vines and wife Elizabeth had following children shown in the Albermarle Register:

 John, bapt. May 10, 1748; godparents, Lawrence Gibbons, Geo. Robertson, 179

Dorothy Vaughn (wife of Thomas). 2. Isaac Willis, bapt. Mar. 19, 1745, none given.

 Lucas, bapt. Jan. 22, 1749, godparents, Thomas Vaughn, John Mitchell, Anne Hill.

4. Herbert, bapt. July 7, 1758.

There is no indication in the register that the Thomas Vines who married Mary Butler was Thomas Vines, Jr. Thomas and Mary Vines' children begin in the register in 1760. There are no more children shown after the baptism of Herbert in 1758, so Mary Butler could have been his second wife.

Thomas Vines came from York County as he is shown as "Thomas Vines of York" in a deed from Robert Mitchell in 1740 (See Mitchell).

Thomas Butler (above) also may have had a second wife, for a Thomas Butler with wife Elizabeth had the following children in the register:

- Thomas, bapt. Nov. 1, 1752; godparents, Thomas Vaughn, Robert Mitchell, Dorothy Vaughn.
- Amy, bapt. May 17, 1757, godparents, Thomas Vines, Jr., Mary Jones, Mary Butler.
- 3. Anne, bapt. Apr. 20, 1760.
- 4. Willie, bapt. Feb. 7, 1762, godparents, David Tucker, Eliz. Butler. Thomas Butler, Jr., and wife Mary had Thomas Butler, Jr., and wife Mary la son "Vines", baptized May 30, 1767.

A Thomas Butler was mentioned as a "grandson" in the will of William Mitchell in 1778 (see Mitchell). William Mitchell's will was witnessed by Thomas Vaughn and John Mitchell. He appears to be the Thomas Butler baptized Nov. 1, 1752, for his godparent, Thomas Vaughn witnessed William Mitchell's will.

- II. Joshua Wynne, youngest son. (See later).
- III. Robert Wynne, dead before 1675.
- IV. Mary Wynne, m. John Woodlieff, son of Captain John Woodlieff, Burgess, Charles City, 1652, and grandson of Captain John Woodlieff who came to Virginia in 1608. The second Captain John Woodlieff was to go Mula to so granted land in 1683, "near a place called 'Jordans' and bounded westerly upon Francis Poythress." One will recognize similar names in Robert Wynne's will.

II. Joshua Wynne, youngest son of Colonel Robert Wynne was a Justice in Charles City, February 23, 1698; member of the House of Burgess, 1702-1704: and after Prince George was cut off from that County he was Sheriff of Prince George 1705 and 1711. (Burgess Journal Vo. 1702-12, p. 50, Executive Journals of Council 1-408; 3-28, 272, 159.) In 1708 Major Joshua Wynne and Mary, his wife, deeded a tract of land in Surry. (V. M. 14, p. 174).

Joshua married Mary, a daughter of Captain Peter Jones of Charles City. In 1661 Peter Jones was Captain of a company of Train Bands from City Creek to the Falls of the Appamattox on the south side and from Powells Creek to the said Falls on the north side. In 1674 he was Major in command of the Fort built at the Falls. The City of Petersburg founded at the site of the Falls is named for his grandson.

Peter Jones' wife was Margaret, daughter of Major General Abraham Wood who held this commission from Berkeley during Bacon's Rebellion. General Wood was also a Justice in Charles City, 1655; Colonel of a regiment from Charles City and Henrico in 1656, Burgess 1652-56. He entered the Governor's Council in 1657 and remained a member until 1671.

Mrs. Margaret Wood-Jones afterwards married Thomas Cocke of Malvern Hills. As Margaret Cocke of the County and Parish of Henrico she made her will, August 12, 1718, same probated May 4, 1719, as follows:

"to grandaughter Margaret wife of Edward Goodrich to grandaughter Mary wife of John Worsham to grandson Peter Wynne one Mullato man named John Henry being appointed to be given by will of my deceased husband Thomas Cocke. I also confirm gift of boy named Thomas I made to Major Joshua Wynne in his life time. to daughter Margaret Jones - 2 silver spoons to daughter Mrs. Mary Randolph - 1 negro boy to son Peter Jones - son of my son Abraham Jones decd., 10 shillings to buy him a ring. to grandson Joshua Wynne 2 steers, grandsons Robert Wynne, William Wynne and Francis Wynne a cow each when they arrive at lawful age.

to godson William, son of William Randolph, - 1 Mulatto boy to son Peter Jones - rest of estate. Executors: son and William Randolph."

Joshua like his brother, Thomas, was an Indian Interpreter. In 1704 the Nottoway, Meherrin, Nansemond, Pamunkey and Chickahominy Indians petitioned the governor to allow some of their chief men to go north to conclude a peace with the Senecas, and ransom the Nottoway king taken prisoner last summer. The desired leave to take with them Captain Joshua Wynne and Captain Thomas Wynne "without whose consent and approbation they were to conclude nothing". (C. J. 2-380) These brothers seem to have been fearless adventurers for this was a far away, difficult and dangerous journey.

In 1707, Major Joshua Wynne was one of a commission of 6 persons appointed to examine upon oath "such ancient inhabitants of Prince George (and other border counties between this Colony and North Carolina) and discover the truth as to the said bounds bethe said colonies."

Joshua Wynne died in 1715 as an account of his estate was filed in that year (Orders) and on March 30, 1715, a suit was brought against Peter Wynne as administrator of the estate of his father, Joshua Wynne. (V. M. 20,86).

Children:

Peter Wynne, m. Frances, daughter of John Anderson and the widow of John Herbert. She was the executrix of Herbert's will in 1716. (V. M. 18, p. 190. Her will was probated in 1725. She mentioned her Herbert children, but no Wynne children. (Wm. 8, (1), p. 147)

In 1731 Peter Wynne was granted 1000 acres on north side of Butterwood Creek in Prince George and in 1732 he assigned 100 acres of same to Henry Wyatt.

- Frances Wynne made a deed in Prince George 1717.
- 5. William Wynne. (See later)

William Wynne, a younger son of Major Joshua Wynne, was born in 1705, for he made a deposition in Prince George in 1727 in which he gave his age as 22. (V. M. 38, p. 243). His land fell in Brunswick County when same was formed from Prince George. He was a Justice in Brunswick in 1732 and Sheriff of the County in 1736. (Ex. Journals of Council 4-266, 368).

He soon moved to the far western frontiers of the country for in 1738 he patented 200 acres on the south side of the Dan River in what is now Pittsylvania County. In 1745 he together with Clement Reade and Robert Jones had leave of the council to patent 36000 acres in the western country. In 1752, when the new County of Pittsylvania was formed he was a member of the first County Court. He was granted a patent of 2000 acres joining upon his former survey on the Dan River. This was at "Wynnes Creeks and Wynne's Falls", two places which were named in his honor. This land is now the site of the present city of Danville.

William Wynne's son, Thomas, and Richard Echols were among the first vestrymen of Antrim Parish and served the Parish in this capacity for many years. William Wynne made his will October 8, 1777, same probated March 26, 1778, as follows: (D&W 5, p. 444).

"Grandson, William Wynne, son of my daughter, Mary Wynne, to inherit the home place 295 acres on Sandy Creek after the death of Frances, my wife. Esecutors: sons, William and Thomas. Witnesses: William Collie, Charles Collie, Stephen Velita, Phebe Worsham, and Mary Collie."

Children:

- I. William. In 1774 William Wynne of Pittsylvania sold to John Worsham 200 acres on both sides of Dan River at mouth of Rutledges Creek to Jackson. Said land was given him by his father, William Wynne. Deed was recorded in Halifax. He was head of a family of three persons in Pittsylvania in Census of 1782 but was out of the county when Census of 1785 was taken.
- II. Thomas. On September 27, 1770, William Wynne, Sr., made a deed of gift to grandchildren, Mary, John, Patty and Francis Wynne of a negro each, and to John a boy named George. (D. B. 2, p. 7).

In 1784, John Wynne, Jr., of Lincoln county, North Carolina gave power of attorney to George Humphrys of Caswell County, North Carolina to recover a negro boy, George, given to John Wynne by his grandfather, William. (D. B. 7, p. 221)

On November 1764, 295 acres were surveyed on lower Sandy Creek of the Dan River for George Musick. This land was transferred to William Wynne, Jr., son of Thomas Wynne, by George Musick in 1769, 1773 and 1780. William and his grandmother, Frances Wynne, sold 295 acres to Humphrey Hendrick for £ 2000, February 15, 1780. This was the home place mentioned in William Wynne's will.

Thomas Wynne was head of a family of ten persons in 1782 but was out of the county in 1785.

- III. John, on September 27, 1775, was an Ensign of Halifax Militia (V. M. 19, p. 307). In 1870 Captain John Wynne's company of Halifax Militia fought at the Battle of Guilford. C.H. (McAllister). In 1782 he was head of a family of eight persons. He sold 208 acres to Thomas Fearn in 1783, next to Robert and Charles Wynne, same being land he now occupies. He was out of the county in 1785.
- IV. Robert was head of a family of twelve persons in 1782 and of eleven in 1785. On November 13, 1788, he sold 300 acres to his brother in law, Humphrey Hendricks, and evidently moved out of the county. His son, Robert, was probably the person of the same name who later moved to Sumner County, Tennessee, with his cousins, the Echols and Dixons. (see later).
- V. Margaret, m. Humphrey Hendricks who was head of a family of eight persons in 1785.
- VI. Elizabeth, m. Joseph Echols who was head of a family of nine persons in 1785.

is just across the border from Pittsylvania.

Colonel Henry Dixon was a son of Henry Dixon, Sr. of Caswell County. Colonel Dixon, affectionately known as "Hal" to his soldiers, had a long and distinguished record of service in the Revolution. He was Captain, 1st North Carolina, 1 September 1775; transferred to 8th North Carolina, January 1777; Major 3rd North Carolina 4 October 1777; Lieutenant Colonel 12 May 1778; wounded at Stono Ferry 20 June 1779; transferred to 2nd North Carolina, 6th February 1782; died in service 17 July 1782. Williamson Wynne (1760-1828), son of Major Joshua Wynne of the Georgia Continental line, born in Virginia, served as a private in Captain Dixon's company (DAR, Vol. 104, p. 38).

Colonel Dixon's will was probated in September 1782. He named wife, Martha, and children, Roger, Robert, Henry, Frances, Elizabeth and Wynne Dixon.

Wynne Dixon, his son was Ensign 10 North Carolina, 1st March, 1781; 2nd Lieutenant, 5th July 1781, transferred to 1st North Carolina, February 1782; served to close of war. Died 24 November 1829.

Wynne Dixon (1764-1832) married first Keturah Payne January 8, 1786; and secondly Rebecca, daughter of David Hart. He was a charter member of the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnatti. In 1796-97 he represented Caswell County in the North Carolina Senate. Heremoved to Tennessee and then to Kentucky.

- Cornelius, (1813-85) m. 1836, Isabella Clay (1817-1911) and had Robert F. Dixon, b. 1853, who married Rosa R. Green, b. 1859. Their daughter, Susan Dixon married L. B. Curd.
- Judith, (1821-71), m. 1838, Thomas T. Towles and had Elizabeth Towles, b. 1849, who married William Meade Alvin.

Henry Dixon, Sr., father of this distinguished Revolutionary family made his will in Caswell County as follows:

"Henry Dixon, of Caswell County, North Carolina, being old and infirm but of sound Sense & Memory - -

"4th August 1795, Wife, Elizabeth, to have a good sufficient & Genteel maintenance out of my Estate suring her Life to be afforded her by my Two Sons Charles Dixon & Tilman Dixon; to my son, Charles Dixon, the tract of land whereon I now live containing 630 acres, which was granted to me by the State of North Carolina; one negro man named Jeff; to my granddaughter, Frances Dixon, daughter of Henry Dixon, deceased, negro girl named Cloe; feather bed and fur. Rest of estate both real and personal to my Two sons, Charles Dixon and Tilman Dixon. Appoint Sons, Charles and Tilman Dixon, Executors." (Caswell Wills, Vol.1, p. 21)

Charles Dixon, son of Henry, Sr., was Ensign 6th North Carolina, 2nd April 1777; transferred to 3rd North Carolina, 1st July 1778; Lieutenant, 8th February 1779; wounded at Eutaw Springs, 8th September 1781, transferred to 4th North Carolina 6th February 1782; retired 1st January 1783. (Heitman)

Tilghman Dixon, son of Henry Sr., was 1st. Lieutenant, 1st North Carolina, 20 October 1775; Captain 5th February 1777; taken prisoner at Charleston, 12 May 1780; exchanged 14th June 1781; retired 1st January 1783. (Heitman).

He married Maria Don Carlos 1789. She was born 1767. They both died at Dixon Springs, Tennessee, and are the ancestors of Mr. Charles W. Dixon of Gould, Arkansas. Eliza Henry Dixon, a daughter of Captain Tilghman Dixon, born 1802, died 1871, married Dr. James Waller Overton (1785-1865). Their daughter, Elizabeth Overton (1830-80), married James L. Calcott (1824-59) of Natchez, Mississippi.

Major Thomas Donoho of Caswell served in the Revolution in the 6th North Carolina and other regiments with the Dixons. He was 1st Lieutenant 6th North Carolina, 16th April 1776; Captain 10th September 1776; Major, 13th October 1781; in 4th North Carolina 6th February 1782. Served to close of war; died 1825. (Heitman)

Major Donoho married Keziah Saunders and died in Caswell County in 1825. He is the ancestor of the Donohos of Sumner and Trousdale counties in Tennessee.

Soon after 1790 these families began their migration to blue grass fields of Sumner County, Tennessee. In Caswell County in 1790 were Henry, Charles, Martha, Tillman, Wynne and Roger Dixon. Also Patrick, William and Major Thomas Donoho. Accompanied by some of their Wynne, Hendrick and Echols relatives of Pittsylvania, Virginia, they started on their long trek through the Indian Country.

Patrick, Charles, Edward and Thomas Donoho bought land in Sumner County. Deeds to them show that they came from Caswell County, North Carolina. (Sumner Bk. A, pp. 14, 24, 129, 130, 171.)

Sumner County, Book 1, 1793-97, shows that Wynne Dixon sold land to Thomas Bradley; Tighlman Dixon to Catherine Bledsoe; Charles & Wynne Dixon to Tighlman Dixon; Elkahanah Echols bought land from James Montgomery. (pp. 359, 212, 443, 456, 128).

In 1787 Joel Echols, ancestor of the Echols family of Sumner, and Joseph Hendricks were soldiers in Captain Hunter's company, Evans Batallion of Sumner County Militia.

Young Robert Wynne, probably the son of Robert Wynne of Pittsylvania, Virginia, heretofore mentioned, married Cynthia Harrison, January 6, 1800. They were the parents of Colonel Alfred Robert Wynne of Castalian Springs, Tennessee, and of Cynthia Wynne who married Albert Gallatin Donoho of Trousedale County.

Robert Wynne died a few years after his marriage for on July 31, 1805, his widow, Cynthia, married Samuel Kerr of Wilson County.

Alfred R. Wynne, his son, lived at Hickory Ridge in Wilson County until he was sixteen when he returned to Sumner. He was a Colonel of Militia in 1860 and served one term in the State Senate in 1866.

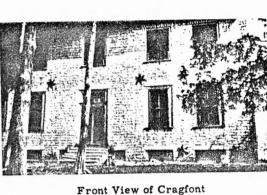

In Colonel Wynne's lifetime the Echols, Wynnes and Dixons of Dixon's Springs were said to be related, but no one knew exactly how. It is interesting to find that this is true.

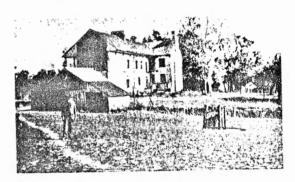

Colonel Wynne, born Dec. 1800, died Dec. 16, 1893; married Almira Winchester Feb. 15, 1825. She was born March 30, 1805, and died June 24, 1884. She was the daughter of General James Winchester of "Cragfont", Sumner County. Colonel Wynne lived at Castalian Springs about a mile from "Cragfont". The Colonel's home which was built for them by General Winchester about 1825, is a splendid example of early Tennessee architecture; it is now occupied by the Colonel's grandson, George Winchester Wynne.

Children of Almira and Alfred R. Wynne:

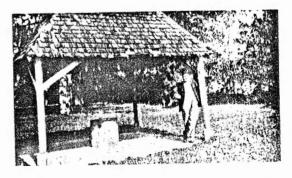

- I. James Wynne, b. December 8, 1825,

Adele Wynne, born 14 Feb., 1878, lives in Fayetteville, Tenn. She is a daughter of Andrew Jackson Wynne, son of Colonel Wynne. Andrew Wynne was a physician in Marengo County, and served in the Second Tennessee Regiment in the Confederate Army. He married Caroline Adele Prowell, b. March 2, 1843, d. 13 Dec. 1911. WOODLIFFE of BUCKINGHAM, ENGLAND and PRINCE GEORGE, VIRGINIA

ROBERT WOODLIFFE of Peterley, Buckingham, was the son of NICHOLAS WOODLIFFE (Vis. Bucks 1566, Harleian, Vol. 58, p. 228). He married first Jane, daughter of Roger Smith, who died without issue. He married secondly, Anne, daughter of Sir Robert Drury of Edgerley Bucks, a younger son of Sir Robert Drury of Hawsted, Suffolk, Speaker of the House of Commons (Burke's Extinct Baronetcies, p. 169) (Coppinger's Manors of Suffolk, Vol. 7, p. 35) (Dict. Nat. Biography, Vol. 6, p. 57).

In 1552 the manor of Stonors in Bucks was sold by Dorothy Verney to Robert "Woodlast" and William Howse (Vict. Hist. Bucks, Vol. 2, p. 332). In 1551 Geoffrey Dormer conveyed the manor of Peterley to Robert Woodliffe, but probably for a term of years only, as Robert Dormer, his grandson, held it in 1580. In 1557 Robert Woodliffe settled Peterley upon himself and Anne Drury whom he was about to marry. He died in 1593 and was succeeded by his son Drew who in 1596 joined with his mother in conveying their interest in the manor to Sir Robert Dormer (Do. Vol. 2, p. 330).

- NI. DREW was son and heir in 1596.

JOHN³ WOODLIFFE came to Virginia in 1608, for Alexander Brown in his "First Republic" (p. 345) says that in 1619 "Capt. John Woodliffe, who had been in Virginia 11 years, was to have the command of Berkeley Hundred".

John Woodliffe had evidently returned to England for on the 4th of September 1619, while in England, he signed an agreement with four Matter of beeking Fortune in Walco Through English Courts Is Given Attention and an organized Attempt To Recover Will Be Made, Those Selected for Service.

The ancient Sir John Wynne, the merry and hospitable holder of Gwydir castle, and happily the descendant of the original prince of Wales, would doubteas have grinned and rubbed his knuckles in the good humor of it all, if he could have looked out over most and fen, far away from the tarrets and towers of his dwelling place, and glimpsed the gathering of his right worthy descendants on the afternoon of Thankagiving day, 1914, in the meeting place of the Moone, in this city.

Hir John might have suddenly become vexed, however, and hamstrung a slave, or hanished with unseemly temper some meers swashbuckler or unhappy jester forever from his keep, for venturing to green that his name would be handed down to posterity in the multiplicity of forms in which it now appears on the accredited records of the Wynne family.

The name is spalled in nearly all the forms imaginable, from Wyn to Winnes, taking on or dropping a "y," and "i," an "e" or an "a" with an absolute disregard for the form observed by the late Nir John. Each name nevertheless incorporates a claim on the lands and titles of that royal Welshman, whose hardthood in war, and hospitality in the piping times of peace, won him much favor where royal favor was hard to get and worth having.

During the afternoon, addresses were delivered by Mrs. Anna Wynn Ross and Dr. J. H. Wynn. Both addresses were of a great deal of interest. Mrs. Ross reviewed a visit to Wales, and told the members of the family just how the estates involved appear to the visitor of today. Yesterday morning, there wa some disappointment over the failure of Mr. Fox to appear as early as espected, and many of the visitors doubted for a time that the meeting would be a success. After arrangements had been made for a reunion to be held in the United Brethren church and many had assembled there, Mr. Fox arrived and the meeting was transferred to the Moose hall. > > Some Addresses.

During the afternoon, addresses were delivered by Mrs. Anna Wynn Ross and Dr. J. H. Wynn. Both addresses were of a great deal of in-terest. Mrs. Ross reviewed a visit to Wales, and told the members of the family just how the estates involved appear to the visitor of today.

Yesterday morning, there was some disappointment over the failure of Mr. Fox to appear as early as expected, and many of the visitors doubted for a time that the meeting would be a success. After arrangements had been made for a reunion to be held in the United Brethres church and many had assembled there, Mr. Fox arrived and the meeting was transferred to the Moose hall. Mr. For reached the city, Wednesday evening, and is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Esre Smeltser, of Ballentine avenue. He expects to go to England and Wales in January to carry forward the claims of the family to the estates.

The next convention of the Wynn family will be held in Cleveland the third Thursday in September 1916. NOTE 9

The church will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each week day and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays during Garden Week only.

Church services usually are held on the second and fourth Sundays at 4 p.m. from June through September. Church services are not held in the cold months because there is no heating facility.

Robbins also announced that Milton L. Grigg of Charlottesville will be here soon to check; the possibility of starting restoration of the interior of the church. Grigg is an expert in colonial restoration and aided in the repairs to preserve the beautiful brick exterior of the church.

BUILT IN 1657

Merchants Hope Church was built in 1657 and is said to be the oldest Protestant church still standing and in use in America. It is located on Merchants Hope rd. (sometime called River rd.) on State Rt. 641 about a quarter of a mile off State Rt. 10. It is approximately six miles from Hopewell.

Good fortune seems to have preserved this church through more than 300 years.

"It stands today as a symbol of the spiritual character of our ancestors, who carved the Virginia Colony out of the wilderness, and as a witness to the great heritage of our American way of life," remarked Robbins. Interior furnishings of the church were destroyed during the Civil War when Union soldiers used it as a picket station. Floors, pews, chancel and other furnishings were put in about 1870 when it is probable the wood ceiling and wood wainscoating were added as well as a

Richard Bland, the "intellec-A colonial brick wall around tual father of the American Revolution," and Edmund Ruffin, the "Father of Agricultural Chemistry," lived nearby and were communicants at Merchants Hope Church.

A group of London merchants once owned a merchant ship named Merchants Hope. They also owned a plantation by that name which had been named for the ship. So when they gave the land for the new church, it was naturally called "Merchants Hope Church." It was not unusual in that day for churches to bear plantation names, or even family names.

People often have been curious as to why the church is so isolated. Robbins explains it this

By 1655 this area was beginning to group up. Plantations were being built away from the river. The tobacco trade was booming. The colony was beginning to have considerable wealth.

The members began to want e their own parish on the south n side of the James. Until then, everybody had to travel to the e other side of the James to t Charles City Courthouse for all a legal matters and for church.

In 1910 Mr Winn came to Sydney, where he founded the business of Winn & Sons Ltd. Later he opened a shop in Oxford Street, which has now grown to more than 4 times its original size. He also 404 N. Polk Ave., Jonesboro, Louisiana. October 27, 1965.

Mr. Robert L. Landrum 6416 Pontchartrain Blvd., Bew Orleans, Louisiana, 70124.

Dear Mr. Landrum:

I am glad to hear from you again and to know that Betsy Hurr ricane didn't damage you too much. So much of New Orleans really did have destruction. I have a neice on the Tulane Faculty connected with the Children's Hospital at Charity. She lives on St. Charles Ave. in an apartment house; they were without electricity so long. A cousin, wife of the Distric Superintendent of the Methodist Church, Rev. Carl Lueg; they live out near Auduboh Park- she says so much damage was there- many trees blown downand that St. Charles Ave. will never look the same; also the beautiful Garden District was so damaged and destroyed- let us pray and trust we will never have to experience such a thing again. Betsy came on here- did a lot of damage to the trees- our lawn was covered- at the plantation near Monroe much more damage was done- the pecan crop almost a complete loss- they raise quarter horses- a pecan tree blew down on one of their prize colts killing it and breaking the leg of another- the cotton crop was about 2/3 destroyed- as well as the cane. After all we have a lot to be thankful forno lives were lost in this area.

I am sorry I can't be of very much help with your Wynn-Posey line at Start ar Rayville, in Richland Parish. It is possible that some of them are from my Md., Lunenburg, Va., S.C., and Alabama Winns; also, I am a descendant of Thomas Posey of Ga., and Md. He served in the Rev. from St. Mary's Co. Md. under Capt. Belain Posey. The Poseys came to S.C., have the will of Bennett Posey, S.C.; also some data on the Succession of Thomas Posey in Elbert Co. Ga. His oldest daughter married Abner Winn, son of Thomas Winn of Abbeville Dist., S.C.- they are my 3rd gr. grandparents- came and settled in Tuscaloosa Co. Ala. I have a copy of their Bible Records. Thomas Posey's son, John B. Posey, mar. a Miss Screven in S.C., came and settled near Woodville, Miss., in the 1820's- was a Federal Judge in Louisiana. Many of his descendants live in that area now- at that time it seems Wilkinson Co. was perhaps a part of Louisiana. From Old Familes of Louisiana I found that Stephen Watts of Pennsylvania, wife a Miss Asheton, lived, was named as a Governor of the Florida Parishes. Two of his daughters married.

Stephen Watts practiced law in Philadelphia- he became dissatisfied as a British citizen in the Colonies he went to English West Florida and settled in New Richmond in 1775; later he is found pleading as a barrister before th Spansih Court in Pensacola. Later he received the appointment of Recorder of Deeds for the English on the Mississippi River, Justice of the Quorum and King's Attorney for the District of New Richmond- serving until British rule in that section of La. was brought to an end by the victories of Galvez and his Spanish Army in 1779-1781 when Fort Butem Manchaz, Baton Roug and Pensacola were wrested from the grip of George 111.

One of his daughters mar. in 1791 William Wikoff, 9 ch. Elizabeth, mar in 1792 in Baton Rouge to Don Manuel Luis Gayoso Lamos, d. 3 mos. later. He then married her sister, Margaret, b. on Belmont Plantation on Miss, March 23. 1775. She presided over Concord, Natchez, and Governor's mansion in New Orleans.

Gov. de Lomos died in N.O. on July 18, 1799, and is buried under Altar of the Saint Louis Cathedral in N.O. His widow later married Captain Stelle and had 3 daughters.

Margaret had one son, Fernando Gayoso de Lemos, who married Victoria Lodoiski Perez (Q.V.) Lt. Governor of Spanish Upper Louisiana, and Jeanne Catherine Dubois, who died in Natchitoches, La. Jan. 14, 1837.

Just thought you might be interested in this data.

I appreciated the data you sent on the Wynns- could not connect it with any of my line. I notice you have data back to 1766, it is possible that some of the early data will connect with my line. Would you like for me to return the data to you or shall I keep it for my records?

I think your New Orleans Genesis is a marv elous Genealogical Record for the people in that area and I do appreciate the copy sent to me-after looking through it very carefully I do not find it would be of much help to meall of my people came from Md. Va. S.C. Ga. Ala. Miss. & La., and none of them so far as we can find ever settled and lived in the N.O. area. Right now I am weighted down the the SC., Recorder; 3 from Ga. 1 from Ala. the State Gen. and N. La. quarterlies, as well as the Ky., and I can't see my way clear to get one from that area-perhaps I will find later I can.

I will appreciate hearing from you again- and if you would like to hear or have more of my Winn line I'll be glad to send to you- or what I have gathered on my Posey and Watts line- I do know that the Watts' are legion and there are so many nearby I havn't been able to connect with my line- I see the Watts live in Richland Parish. I do have two first cousins- one lives out from Holly Ridge- the other near Oak Grove in West Carroll Parishanother at Gilbert, Lavelle, has a small grocery there.

Please let me hear from you again. I am enclosing a self-addressed-stamped envelop.

Best wishes in your research.

Respectfully,

MRS. W. W. MCDONALD, JR.

Dear Bob-

Thanks to your letter of tet 24th it came tet 28th along with the okay from the Hurlington Tiliary to use their material lat least. Sie John Wynnis district of the Guydir Family".) You wouldn't believe the application I had to fill out! Deven had to provide 2 references" of scholastic standing + Calif. residents! I finally asked my aunt a a professor of listory I know at 0.5.0 They don't encourage genealogy work at all + act as if I evas up to no good purpose. I'm tuying to play it cool and get to look at their catalogue - ho refully see find some other somes we can use. More about this later.

the Mis Wenn in deutington Park promised to send me some data on Mina Weine, but so far no word. I did give her what I had found, but am sure it wasn't really helpful with William Junings Weine b. 1832 in Ohio. The references I mentioned to her, and you noted in the copy of the letter I thought you had probably seen somewhere. This is what I have on them.

Barksdale Genealogy - p. 120. Elizabeth Barksdale b. 1802 m. William W. Winn. 4 children - 2 sons, W.C. Win and alped Winn killed in 5. Carolina in the Ciril War.

Cloudand Jenealogy - p. 2415 etc. (copies enclosed) New England Winn Jamily arining Boston 1640 + small items on other Winn lines in England + america Maybe useful material, particularly the other references listed. These pages are from Vol. III

Deem - married Wymes from Pennsylvania and settled in Indiana. I only copied 4 Rages on the Welch era - can do some of the later material. They did not solve Mrs Wymidin Huntington Park / dilemna or file in our missing data. What I found on Welch hackground I know you have too. These references were mentioned to her to illustrate the many branches of the family being investigated + show why it was quite difficult at the moment to pinpoint William Jenning Wyun b. 1832 in Rio.

This mornings mail trought the material from Mrs. Olice whom of that Park. - also enclosed. Have you heard from hostoo? I planto write her again 4 tell her that I forwarded it to you.

my main project for the day was a confrontation with the Reference Dept. of the Hendrigton Library and I did manage to tring it off. I can't begin to till all the ditails or this would never end. However, I did get accepted for research privileges + have a Library Pass good till June 30. Olao, I did get to read Sie June Wynnis History of the Juny dir Torriby (1827 edition) and have full use of the stacks.

I am more or less to curing on the early 1600's and our major question — is Minor Wine described from Six Owen or down Thomas?? In Paul Gray has written off Six Owen & I want to know if he has any data I don't know the I feel that owen is still a likely candidate because in 1611 he was 19-2; years old and the 3rd non of a newly created baronet. It seems perfectly reasonable to me that be would go to Verginia with the 3rd charter Co. At that point, I'm sure he never thought be would be in line for the little. In gray thinks athereise and may have lots of data to back his opinion. From what Jive found to for - he is still a candidate for the "missing link".

3. gray wrote a very nice litter enclosing several items the line from walls to america and know that it is really down on paper and can be proved - what - went the connection really is. I sho think the line though owen is more logical) - if a daughter of John came to Virginia, the name would not even be wynne, Winn, etc. See send you whatever I manage to find in Boston anyw.

I can't see planning any shopping jounts in Boston, so Ireally am looking forward to finding a goldmine of einform the litrary. See do my scholastic liest as a genealogist in Boston I really can't stand the place) and then he my usual hedonist areg in Son Francisco. The never been in a litrary in Boston so I have hope that there must be late of things there just mailing for me to find them. The restaurants of instructing sights are certainly not in the same league with New orleans a Son Francisco so there must be compensations somewhere

We've so glad the ginger grew for you your bulbs finally decided to grow in California too. Our only problem is that the snails love them. Dear Bob-your letter about Dr. grey + me clegg and the conflicting information on thereasly Winns in Verginia was most interesting Dagree with you that it would be suise to wait a lit longer to put down any definite facts on these generations. I know I would rather wait and laws it recorded correctly.

Briggaphy published by Oxford University. It may help solve certain parts of the mustery because it shows Richard as Baronet Wynn of Guydin (Son of Sie John Wynn + older hother of Over) and another Richard as the 4 Baronet of Guydir who was the son of Sie Tuen (the 3rd Baronet of Guydir). Both Richards were childless of History Vol. 72. This is largely unrelated material, but obviously touches on our ancestors + is quite the interesting.

Stude out one more piece of material. I have glanced briefly at the index of some publication that mentioned a num lever of Winns (17+18 cent.) in New England. Many had the same cone names as the Virginia hanch, and one married a Wither green names as the Virginia hanch, and one married a Wither Paul + I will be in Boston later this week + I have planned to apend I day in the genealogy liberies there. I really has planned to concentrate on the Emery Jamily (Poul's mothers ancestors) but I'll do alit on the Winns + see if I can find where this group fits the picture.

I never ded get to the New England Historical Genealogy Toc. They had moved + their old address was a vacant lot. I will not forget though + will get to it as soon as possible. Benice Kasnes' letter was most helpful + very exact + I will copy it too. She is a math. instructor at the Union of arkansas and does know her facts + sticks strictly to them. I do remember I gave you her name and address when we were in New Orleans.

Do give me your new address in New orleans because I hate to tempt fate + expect the postal system to forward mail!

I am enclosing a sheet showing where I found different dates than you did. Particularly the brith date of Rosamond Hampton, I feel must be in earor. She simply could not have been born in 175708 & had 9 chiedren with William Winn & died about 1780.

Daw M. Landrum,

I heartate to write again to you regarding whim family genealoogy material, but I have no idea whether you received my first letter or not. I did write to you 3 to 4 weeks ago explaining how we leaved of the whim/where Family Com and our first information on my husband's line we really are most gratiful to Janie whem Larsson for her help and we would like to leave a great deal more.

of March for a medical meeting, and it is my idea to put in a day or two copying any family history that might be available. Scattering have as wish to incommence you or to presume on the chance name or address, or even the existence of the Wyme Family asso. I only feel that this might be a wonder - ful apportunity to enlarge our knowleder of my humands family.

My mother and grand mother did a great deal of genealogy research in years past, so my own jamily history does not pose the challenge that the Winn family poses for us now. My bushoud lead no idea of his anastors beyond his grand Jather with the little be received from Mrs. Larsson.

Swoned much appreciate knowing if you have any material ene might use if there is a fee of any sort (which is perfectly okay with us), or if you answer queins only by mail. This is our first visit to New Tleans and we are trying to plan outline to include all the many things we want to see and do there most sincereary.

Nr. Robert L. Bandrum, Jr., 6416 Ponchatrain Blvd., New Orleans, La. 70124.

Dear Mr. Landrum: Thank you for your answer to my query relative to the Winn-Posey line. I placed a query in the Baton Rouge Times relative to the Posey Family- John B. Posey, a brother of my 3rd gr. grandmother, Lucretia Posey, had been a Federal Judge in Louisiana- many of his descendants now live in Baton Rouge area and in Wilkinson Co. Miss. I had found marriages, etc., in the Jackson, Miss. Archives. The postmaster at Gurley, La., wrote me he was a descendant and gave me some history; also a Mrs. Haase in Baton-Rouge gave to me cemetery records- There is a Posey man and his sister who have a lot of history- according to Mrs. Haase- but they do not answer letter I had wanted to go to see them this summer and my health would not permit.

About the Winn (originally spelled Wynn-Wynne) Abner Winn the oldest son of Thomas Winn of Thomas Winn and wife, Rhkkadakadakadakadaka Philadelphia Winn, was my 3rd gr. grandfather, and he had settled in Tuscaloosa Co. Ala., many of hi descendants now live at Moores Bridge in Tuscaloosa where they own about 800C acres of land. I went there and copied the records from his beautiful olf Bible- have quite a lot of data. Abner Winn's son, Genubath Winn married Margaret Camp; he was a Methodist minister, they came and settled in Claiborne Parish in 1857 and are buried in Cld Town Cemetery Haynesville- many of his descendants now live there. Their oldest daughter, Mary O. Was my 2nd gr. grandmother- she married J.N. Watts in Floyd Co. Ga.

The Winns first settled in St. Mary's Co. Md., then to Lunenburg Co. Va., some to Madison Co. Ala., and my Thomas settled in Abbeville Dist. S.C. After his 1st wife's death, he married her cousin, Letitia Carter, who had two Carter sons, Robert and C.M. Carter (he died) - Thomas and Letitia had one daughter, Lettice, married a Walkery Refer them.

Perhaps correspondence with Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Savannah (Wynn) Beane might be of help to you. She spelled Haynesville (Hanesville) La.

I am enclosing letters and copies of letters and when you have finished with them please return to me- I have proved my Winn line back to Colonial Dames and DAR- papers have been accepted for the CDs for my daughter. If I can be of more assistance to you let me know- I do have a lot more data. Unusual for such a young man to become interested in genealogy- it does look as if we are going to have to prove our race- under the present Court Rulings we do not count.

Best wishes,

Ga., 1799 to 1812.

This is all the data I have on the Winn family, which I hope you will be able to gain the information you need for your line. You can readfly see that they are all descended from the same common ancestor, but since the names of children of the various families are not given it is hard to figure out. But you will note that Thomas Winn (my Rev. Anc. mother's name was Sarah Banister and Joseph must have been a brother of my Thomas. If you can will you please tell me who was the father of PMILADELPHIA. Winn, wife and ist cousin of Thomas Winn, and who was the father of Lettice (perhaps mother) his 2nd wife. All cousins. I have found that to be typical in the Winn families the marriage of so many first cousins.

Would be glad to hear from you again.

Sincerely,

Louis M. McDoneld, Krs. W. W. Mc D. Jr)

Dear Mrs. Beane: RE: WINN WYNN

Thank you so much for answering my query relative to the Winn Family. I do not have anything on the names you have given to mebut it is possible I do have a little clue for you.

Am I correct that your grandparents are buried in Haynesville, La.? That is what I made it out to be "Hanesville"— If so, it is possible T can give you a lead. In my research in Claiborne Parish on my own gr.gr. grandfather and family who had moved from Ga. and settled at Haynesville in 1847, Genubath Winn. He died in 1863 and is buried in Old Town Cemetery, Haynesville, as well as many of his descendants. He was a Methodist Minister. In my research on the Winn Family there I found this which could be your family. The Beenes— as they now spell their names— were of that area some of them now live in Shreveport— made a lot of money in oil in Claiborne Parish.

I found the following Wynn's- our name was formerly Wynn- but has been spelled Winn for several generations- Original Wynns settled in Maryland-thence to Lunenburg Co. Va., and my Rev. Soldier, Thomas Winn, grandfather of G. Winn, settled in Abbeville Dist. S.C.oldest son, Abner Winn settled in Tuscaloosa Co. Ala., my 3rd gr grandfather, where he died in the 1830's have his will and Bible Records, etc.

RICHARD WINE. Land Winn, widow of Richard Winn, filed an application for a passion on Becomber M. 1846, under Act of Congress July & 1886, spacing that the was them 86 years of age; that her mashand Bishard Winn was an officer in the Revolutionary war; that he died in 1988; a that she heard him say that he entered the Sayline about the commencement of the war; that he was a Virginia endet that he was one time a derivant and commissary that he was married to her by Parson Thomas Wilkinson of the Episcopal church on May 21, 1779.

Colonel William Pincham, age 77, states that he was well acquainted with Richard Winn of Amelia who married his sister Jane Pincham on May 21, 1779; that Richard Winn was his guardian and that "I boarded with him. 2 years and spent much of my time in his family." He furthe says that he has in his possession a copy of an order appointing commissioners to allot to said Richard Winn his portion of "my fathers estate" as the husband of my said sister Jane. Pincham's paper is dated October 19, 1846.

April 19, 1847, W. W. Guy at Mottaway writes a letter to James T. Sutton, Jr., at Richard, Va., stating that "Mrs. Winn states that he Richard, first served as a cadet and went from Amelia, she thinks under Samuel Sherwin." He says he might have gone from Handwer with Patrick Henry, as he had relatives there and sometimes visited them. His father Colonel John Winn. was a native of that county but removed to Imelia. Guy further writes: "There was a house standing not many years since, upon the farm owned by his father, colonel John Winn. which it was said was built for his use and that he kept military stores in it. It is generally believed that he and his father spent a larage portion of their fortune in the service of their country. John Cruit, who was a Revolutionary pensioner now dead, has been heard to restate an anecdote of Mr. Winn while in service. Mr. Pincham, to whose daughter sergeant Winn was then engaged to be married, visited the town near which he Winn was then stationed and upon visiting a house of disipation to see who he could find there, he noticed a young officer who was so maffed up that he could not find him out and he marked a hunting shirt he had on over his other clothing and upon noticing for it the next day, he found it on a Mr. Handelph and upon his accusing him of being where he should not have been and his proof Randolph stated that he had not worn the shirt but had loaned it to Sergeant Winn." It is said the shirt was found on Colonel Peter Randolph father of the late Judge Randolph.

Winn a name appeared on the rolls in the auditors office. Nottaway parish was in Amelia County and the on movember 25, 1860 in benail of Jane Winn's claim.

Richard Winn in Franklin County, N. C., on August 6, 1856 says that he is the only surviving son of Jane Winn and being residuary legatee of said Jane Winn, deceased, appoints Nathaniel McLain his attorney.

The record shows that Jane Winn was placed on the pension roll at $90 per annum for 18 months' service rendered by her husband, Sergeant Richard Winn.

The copyist thinks it most probable that Jane Winn moved with her son, Richard Winn, to Franklin County, N. C., soon after obtaining a pension and that she died there. The record does not show whether or not Richard Winn and his wife, Jane, had other children.

JOHN WINE, File S-39127.

John Winn, cliving in Pendleton District. South Carolina, on October 27, 1820, files claim for a pension under Acts of Congress, March 18, 1818 and May 1, 1820, and states that he enlisted for three years about the month of May 1777 in a company of Captain Moore, 16th Virginia Regulars, called "Virginia Blues", commanded by Colonel Benjamin Gresham, Scotts Brigade on the Continental Establishment. That he was in the battle of Brandywine where he was wounded - having his leg broken; that he was sent to an hospital in Philadelphia and afterwards removed to Valley Forge where he remained until March the following year when he joined the Second Battalion, 16th Regiment, commanded by Colonel Gist; that he was in the battle of Monmouth; that later his regiment was ordered to march to the Southward; that in passing through Virginia he was taken with the measles and left with others sick at Chesterfield Court House; that when fit for service he joined Colonel Lee's Regiment of Calvary and was in the battle of Guildford Court House; that he was taken sick before the battle of Eutaw Springs and confined to an hospital at Cheraw Hills and later discharged from the hospital and that he never again rejoined his regiment. He says that he made an original declaration on May 18 and sent it to the War Department but received no answer. He says that he is a farmer but is infirm now; that he has no family with him except his wife, Hannah, aged 84; that he had his house burnded down in May 1819.

Chancellor W. Thompson of South Carolina took the papers to Abbeville Court House and sent them to Hon. John C. Calhoun in Washington, and Thompson writes that he has known John Winn for some time and that he is one of the few remaining "sober, industrious, poor old wounded soldiers", and that he knew him before his house was burned 5 or 6 years ago; that everything he had was burned up and that he was then "too proud to beg" and labored with great difficulty and supported himself and wife; that he was one of only two old soldiers Colonel Anderson ever attempted to befriend. Joseph Gresham vouches for these facts also.

Winn was a Baptist. He later lost his memory and hearing. His age or place of birth not given. He was never able to return to Virginia. He was placed on a pension of $8 a month.

WILLIAM WELLS INC. 11-11

Makes application for pension December 23, 1833 at King William Court House, Virginia, and states that on the 17th of March last (1833) he was 75 years of age; that he was drafted from King William County, Virginia, where he was born and ever since has resided; that he was in the Company of Captain John Paulett or Pattlett in 1799 and marched to Williamsburg and placed in Regiment of Colonel Holt Richardson and then marched to Sandy Point on the James and there under command of Major George Hubblefield, thence he marched back to Williamsburg and to Little York now called Yorktown. He was granted a pension of $33.33.

About two years after his discharge he joined a volunteer foot company of Captain Chardes Irby or Yearby ? and marched through the lower part of Virginia, passing Petersburg, Williamsburg, Little York (Yorktown) Suffolk, and crossed Jerrico in pursuance of the British who took shipping and made off with it. The Company then returned home after an absence of about seven months. The Company formed themselves into a "horse company" under the same captain. He joined his captain at Amelia and marched from there to Prince Edward, and from thence to Charlotte and then took their line of march to Georgia. CHARLEMAGNE TO ROBERT WYNNE

The descent of Gilbert de Gand (married Alice/Emma, and died about 1095 as Domesday lord of Folkingham, Lincolnshire) from Charlemagne in more than one line can be ascertained by recourse to Erich Brandenburg, Die Nachkommen Karls des Grossen (Frankfurt/M, 1935), pp. 2f., 7, 10; K. F. Werner, "Die Nachkommen Karls des Grossen bis um Jahr 1000," in W. Braunfels, ed., Karl der Grosse, IV (Düsseldorf, 1967), pp. 403-479, and chart; and G. E. Cockayne, The Complete Peerage (London, 1910-1959), VII, p. 672; X, p. 170; and XI, p. 11. The marriage of Gilbert's daughter (name unknown) to William FitzNigel, of Halton (died before 1135); their daughter Leuca and her marriage to Robert de Mohaut (died about 1162); the son of Leuca and Robert, Roger de Mohaut (died by 1227), whose wife's name is unknown; and Roger's daughter Leuca (died by 1227) who married Philip de Orreby the younger-have been documented in my note, "More on Leuca and Robert de Mohaut, "The English Genealogist, No. 12 (1979), pp. 264f., (correcting an earlier article therein mentioned).

From Leuca and Philip de Orreby through Peter de Arderne (born about 1327, died about 1369; while under age and ward of the king married 1331 Cecily Bredbury), there are six generations recorded by "The Elford Pedigree," a manuscript in the collections of the Society of Genealogists, London, as well by the usual references: Earwaker (see below); -William Farrer, Honors and Knights' Fees, II (Manchester, 1925), pp. 111, 271-273; George Ormerod (fuller citation below), Miscellanea Palatina, p. 106; his History (1819), II, pp. 4II.; and his History (1882), II, pp. 75, 78, 85; Collections for a History of Staffordshire, ed. W. Salt Archaeological Society, IV (Longon, 1883), pp. 46f.; The Complete Peerage (as above); and Egerton Brydges, Collin's Peerage of England (London, 1812), X, p. 143.

From Peter's son John Arderne, living in 1379

(wife's name unknown), through John's son Charles Arderne, of Timperley (married Elizabeth Radcliffe), Charles's son John Arderne (married Ellen Duncalfe), to this John's second son William Arderne (married Ellen Done), the descent has been published in The Genealogists' Magazine, London (May 1942), p. 226, although no dates are assigned for the succession Charles-John-William. Nor are any dates given for William's son George Arderne (married Anne Tregall), George's son George Arderne the younger (married Katherine Palmer), George the younger's son Richard Arderne (married Margaret/ Mary Greene), and Richard's daughter Alice Arderne (married John Denne, of Kingston) in the records of that sequence; the Visitations of Cheshire 1580, of Sussex 1530, and of Kent 1619 (cited below).

But from the aforesaid John Denne (married Alice Arderne), there are wills in the Kent Archives Office which carry the line with dates from that John Denne (died 1476) and wife Alice Arderne through their first son Michael Denne (died 1493; married Cristiana Combe), Thomas Denne (died 1564; married Alice Eshehurst), and Mary Denne (married first John Coppin, of Deal, who died 1581). From the said John Coppin and wife Mary Denne, the descent to Colonel Robert Wynne (1622-1675/8), who came to Virginia and married Mary, widow of Francis Poythress, is presented with appropriate references in R. R. Ogburn, As I Was Told (Richmond, Va., 1958), pp. 88f., 90f.

The lineage of Charlemagne through Gilbert de Gand constitutes ten generations; thence through Leuca de Mohaut (married Philip de Orreby), four; thence through Peter de Arderne (married Cecily Bredbury), five; thence through John Arderne, of Timperley (married Ellen Duncaife), three; thence through Alice Arderne (married John Denne), five; and thence through Colonel Robert Wynne, seven. Of those thirty-four generations (Charlemagne through Robert Wynne), there are confirmed dates for all except six, namely: Charles Arderne (married Elizabeth Radcliffe), John Arderne (married Ellen Duncalfe), William Arderne (married Ellen Done), George Arderne (married Anne Tregall), George Arderne jr. (married Katherine Palmer), and Richard Arderne (married Margaret/ Mary Greene). The last date before Charles Arderne is 1379, when his father John was known to be living; the first date after Richard Arderne is 1476, when his son-in-law's (John Denne's) will was probated, a period of ninety-seven years.

Is it possible for six generations to appear in that length of time? If so, the average age of marriage would be about sixteen years, an age which, however improbable, is not impossible. That becomes especially likely when we read that Charles Arderne's paternal grandfather, great-grandfather, and great-great-grandfather were all married under age! Thus the last date before Charles, 1379 (as indicated above) could suggest 1342 as an approximate date for the birth of his father, which in turn gives us 134 years instead of 97 with which to deal and which would raise the average age of marriage about 3 years. (After all, Charlemagne's most prolific wife bore him nine children from her marriage at age thirteen to her death at age twenty-five.)

To illustrate from modern times: it has now (1981) been 93 years since my father was born (1888; died 1934), yet his great-great-granddaughter (fifth generation) has been born. He was 26 when my sister was born; she was 21 when my niece was born; my niece was 23 when my great-niece was born; and the latter was 21 when my great-great-niece was born. In 69 years I have known six generations of my family (including my grandparents). As a matter of fact one of my great-grandfathers lived into my lifetime, although he died when I was only three years old. Thus my 69 years have actually impinged upon seven generations, all marrying at not unusual ages.

It would seem therefore, that, despite lack of precise dates, the six Arderne generations between 1379 (or 1342) and 1476 are plausible. There is insufficient reason to question the published evidence for them thus (beginning with the last dated generation before and the first dated generation after them):

Mr. Robert L. Bandrum, Jr., 6416 Ponchatrain Blvd., New Orleans, La. 70124.

Dear Mr. Landrum: Thank you for your answer to my query relative to the Winn-Posey line. I placed a query in the Baton Rouge Times relative to the Posey Family- John B. Posey, a brother of my 3rd gr. grandmother, Lucretia Posey, had been a Federal Judge in Louisiana- many of his descendants now live in Baton Rouge area and in Wilkinson Co. Miss. I had found marriages, etc., in the Jackson, Miss. Archives. The postmaster at Gurley, La., wrote me he was a descendant and gave me some history; also a Mrs. Haase in Baton-Rouge gave to me cemetery records- There is a Posey man and his sister who have a lot of history- according to Mrs. Haase- but they do not answer letters I had wanted to go to see them this summer and my health would not permit.

The Winns first settled in St. Mary's Co. Md., then to Lunenburg Co. Va., some to Madison Co. Ala., and my Thomas settled in Abbeville Dist. S.C. After his 1st wife's death, he married her cousin, Letitia Carter, who had two Carter sons, Robert and C.M. Carter (he died) - Thomas and Letitia had one daughter, Lettice, married a Walker - Powert Married

Perhaps correspondence with Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Savannah (Wynn) Beane might be of help to you. She spelled Haynesville (Hanesville) La.

I am enclosing letters and copies of letters and when you have finished with them please return to me- I have proved my Winn line back to Colonial Dames and DAR- papers have been accepted for the CDs for my daughter. If I can be of more assistance to you let me know- I do have a lot more data. Unusual for such a young man to become interested in genealogy- it does look as if we are going to have to prove our race- under the present Court Rulings we do not count.

Best wishes,

Dear Mrs. McDonald:

I got interested and copied about twice as much stuff as I promised you. I wented you to have it, because in my opinion, this is your Genubath Winn. Notice that in 1837, Genubath Winn was not a resident of Alabama. is given as Gordon Co. Ga. If you will look on map of Georgia, you will see that Gordon Co. is next to Floyd Co., where your Genubath had children living, & Chatooga Co. is also bordering & that is where the Watts lived, you say. I believe that Genubath lived in Ga. continuously until 1859, except for a short stay in Benton Co. Ala., where he is shown in 1840. I believe he moved back to Ga., as he is not in 1850 Census, Benton Co. Ala. (Calhoun). and then in 1859 His father's estate was settled up in 1857 (altho he died in 1836) Lucretia did not die until 1857, so that is why Abner's estate w as not settled until efter her death. Posssibly Genubath came here in 1857 to settle up his father's estate. Two years later or less he was in La.

If this Abner is yours, & I believe so, then his ancestry is shown away back. LUCRETIA was nee Posey. Notice that in 1850 Census, it says she was born in Maryland, & according to article in Atlanta American, that is where the Winn's originally came from.

Mr. L. R. Thompson, Altavista, Va.

Dear Sir:

Replying to yours of Feb. 13th, beg to advise that I have looked for the record of the marriage of Daniel Edwards to Rhoda Winn without success.

I find an old suit pending about 1801, instituted by Jane Winn, widow of Richard Winn against Richard D. Pincham, Guardian of Peter, Susanna, John, Jane, Charles, Elizabeth, Patsy, Mary, and Richard Winn, orphans and heirs of Richard Winn, deceased; which appears to have been for the purpose of selling certain real estate belonging to the estate of Richard Winn.

W. S. Morton, Farmville, Virginia, does a lot of genealogical work in this section and may be able to help you.

Yours very truly,

signed Horace Adams.
